JOYS OF BULL DURHAM INVADE RANKS OF UNCLE SAM'S SOLDIERS

The Tobacco Co. of California, the Pacific Coast representative of The American Tobacco Company, manufactures and world wide distributors of Bull Durham smoking tobacco, received a telegram from their Eastern headquarters some days ago authorizing them to pay all their employees who are connected with the State Militia in any capacity, full salary while these employees are absent under arms.

Bull Durham for the Soldiers.

In addition to paying its employees' wages while away under arms, The American Tobacco Company has presented to every member of the national guard or state militia in the United States, a bag of Bull Durham smoking tobacco and a package of cigarette papers at all of the state concentration points where the soldiers have mobilized.

At Sacramento, California, 2,500 boys in khaki were made happy by this presentation of Bull Durham tobacco and cigarette papers. Every one received a bag of Bull Durham, the smoke of the U. S. A., and not a soldier present but cheered for the "grand old smoke."
